Salvation in Christianity - Wikipedia Definition and scope. Salvation in Christianity, or deliverance or redemption, is the "saving [of] human beings from death and separation from God" by Christ's atonement for sin.. Christian salvation not only concerns the atonement itself, but also the question how one partakes of this salvation, by faith, baptism, or obedience; and the question of this salvation is individual or collective. Fornication - Wikipedia Fornication is generally consensual sexual intercourse between two people not married to each other. When one of the partners to consensual sexual intercourse is a married person, it may be described as adultery.. For many people, the term carries an overtone of moral or religious disapproval, but the significance of sexual acts to which the term is applied varies between religions, societies ... Ichabod, The Glory Has Departed Ichabod the Glory Has Departed is dedicated to dealing with the issues of apostasy in American Lutheranism in particular and Christianity in general. Keith Mathison's Reply - Called to Communion 411 comments Leave a comment » SB February 16th, 2011 3:49 am :. Honestly, right off the bat... I find it terribly disappointing. I've only made it through about half (not linearly, but reading through different sections), and am quite discouraged that this is the reply of a serious Reformed theologian after 15 months' time... especially since I had enjoyed some of Keith's writings on ...
