How to Resolve Cultural Conflict: Overcoming Cultural ... Cultural conflict in negotiations tends to occur for two main reasons. First, it's fairly common when confronting cultural differences, for people to rely on stereotypes. Stereotypes are often pejorative (for example Italians always run late), and they can lead to distorted expectations about your counterpart's behavior as well as potentially costly misinterpretations. Techniques For Resolving Cross-Cultural Disputes The major sources of disputes involve roles, emotions, misinformation (and misinterpretation) and values. These will all be present in the workforce, whether there is a degree of cultural integration or not. The presence of various cultures may increase the potential for the sources of conflict to come to the surface in a harmful way.
